No. 1381

PAUL M. BRANZBURG - - - - Petitioner

vs.

JOHN P. HAYES, Judge, Jefferson
Circuit Court, Criminal Branch,
Second Division - - - - Respondent
and

vs.

HENRY MEIGS, Judge,
Franklin Circuit Court - - - Respondent

RESPONSE TO MOTION OF AMERICAN NEWSPAPER PUBLISHERS ASSOCIATION FOR LEAVE TO FILE BRIEF AMICUS CURIAE

Comes the respondent, John P. Hayes, Judge, by counsel and hereby objects to the Motion of American Newspaper Publishers Association for Leave to File Brief Amicus Curiae for the following reasons:

1. Counsel for the respondent heretofore has refused to give written consent to American Newspaper

Publishers Association for leave to file a brief as amicus curiae and has consistently refused to give written consent to numerous other requests.

2. There have been many and various persons and corporations expressing interest in the questions to be decided by the court since certiorari has been granted by this honorable court. No less than six (6) separate requests have been made for consent to file amicus curiae briefs. Consent given to one would merely open the door to numerous briefs of the same nature being filed, thus creating an unnecessary burden on the Court and the undersigned. Since the persons who contacted the undersigned are all persons of the news media or the American Civil Liberties Union and whose position in this matter is obviously antagonistic to that of the respondent herein, it is the position of the respondent that there is no reason to believe that counsel for the petitioner cannot present all questions of law and pertinent arguments thereon to this honorable court for just disposition.

3. Counsel for American Newspaper Publishers Association has not set forth facts or questions of law that have not been, or reasons for believing that they will not adequately be, presented by the parties, and the relevancy to the disposition of the case as is required by Rule 42 of the Revised Rules of the Supreme Court of the United States.

It is respectfully requested that the court permit this response to suffice for all subsequent motions for leave to file amicus curiae briefs for the reasons set out herein.

Respectfully submitted
